Description

A Comfortable and Exciting Community to Call Home

If you love the location and excitement of Orange County, but not necessarily the suburban sprawl, then Brentwood Apartments in Santa Ana is perfect for you! We're located right next to Hwy. 55, one of the main freeways that connects you to the rest of the area, plus there's Hwy. 22 taking you out to the coast for a day at the beach. Brentwood is also close to Main Street, where countless performing arts centers and art galleries are clustered. The artists villages scattered throughout the city give Santa Ana a character distinct from the rest of Orange County, plus you'll be able to find those decorative touches to give a unique flair to your apartment! And you'll have lots of space to fill there - you won't believe how big and open all the rooms are, even the guest bathrooms! When you walk outside each morning, you won't be able to resist taking a stroll through our pristine park-like landscaping. Grill some burgers with friends and have lunch at our picnic tables near the playground, then cool off and refresh yourself in the pool (wait an hour first, though!). After you rinse off, get dinner at one of the dozens restaurants in town - everything from elegant cuisine to old-fashioned wood-fired hot dogs. We can't wait to welcome you home to Brentwood!
